

PAIGNTON ACADEMY

ACTIVITIES DAY

Year 9

Quaywest

Local water park on the beach at Goodrington. Have fun with your friends. For thrill seekers enjoy the 8 adrenalin-pumping flume rides including the sheer speed of the Screamer or the Wild Kamikaze or are you brave enough to face the heart stopping plummet the Devil's Drop and 'NEW for 2023' the '3FALL' get up to speed on the head first mat racer ride. If that sounds a bit too much like hard work, then a quick dip in the swimming pool and a laze on a sun terraces might be more to your liking. With views over South Devon's beautiful Torbay. No transport provided.

- Students will only be allowed to stay in Quaywest after 3.00pm with written consent. We will NOT accept text messages or phone calls.

Do NOT wear:

Cut-off jeans and trousers, baggy shorts beyond knee length and transparent/inappropriate costumes are not permitted and do not wear swimwear with zips or buttons as these may damage the flumes. Please be aware that bikini tops can be dislodged.

Wear glasses on the flumes unless it is unavoidable then a disclaimer can be filled out at reception. Wear jeans, or other similar clothing, as they usually have small metal buttons on them, which can damage the rides. Wear goggles unless you really need to - Wear jewellery on the flumes, as it can cause damage and injury, and be easily lost. Please be advised white and luminous coloured swimwear does tend to go transparent, you will be asked by staff if they feel you are to be dressed inappropriately to get changed. Quaywest also cannot guarantee the fastness of the colour of your swimwear, although they use normal pool chemicals it may affect the colour. Quaywest has unisex changing village with individual private cubicles. Please note: Make sure that you check the water depth at exit of any other slide before you ride, the deepest pools are 1.2 M.
